

SIXTEENTH-CENTURY Studies Conference

FRIDAY, October 31

1:30 - 2:30 PM Registration

2:30 - 5:00 PM Short Papers in Two Sections:

A

"Christian Humanism and Freedom: Johann Eberlin to the Peasants"

Kyle C. Sessions, Illinois State University

"Luther and Feuerbach"

Carter Lindberg, College of the Holy Cross

"Calvin and Eucharistic Controversies, 1540 - 1564"

John R. Meyer, McMaster University

"The Role of Rhetoric in the Conversion of Calvin - A Speculation"

Lester DeKoster, Calvin College

B

"Historiography of the Protestant Reformation in Spain"

William B. Jones, Southwestern University

"Ximénez de Cisneros' Religious Reform and the Problem of the Alumbrados"

José C. Nieto, Juniata College

"Gregorio Cortese and the Academy of Modena"

Marvin W. Anderson, Bethel Theological Seminary

"Puritan Attitudes Toward Adultery"

Robert V. Schnucker, Northeast Missouri State College

5:30 PM Dinner, With Paper Following:

"The Spread of the Popular Reformation in England"

Roger Manning, Cleveland State University

Friday Evening Session: Open

SATURDAY, November 1

9:00 - 11:30 AM Session on Sociology of the Reformation:

"The Marxist Interpretation of Anabaptism"

Abraham Friesen, University of California, Santa Barbara

"A Social Historian's Approach to Anabaptism"

Claus-Peter Clasen, University of California, Los Angeles

"Marxist Historiography of the Radical Reformation: Causality or Covariation"

Paul Peachey, Catholic University

COMMENTATOR: Heinz Mackensen, Fairleigh Dickinson University

Noon. Luncheon, With Paper Following:

"Social Aspects of the Reformation"

Natalie Zemon Davis, University of Toronto

2:00 - 3:30 PM Tour of the Pius XII Library, St. Louis University; Foundation for Reformation Research Collection and Other Saint Louis Attractions.

PLEASE POST