Reformed Historical Theology

V&R

The series aims at publishing studies in the historical theology of Calvinism and Reformed Protestantism. It offers scholars the possibility of presenting the results of their research to the international academic world and seeks to stimulate research in this field. The series accepts texts in German and English.

Editor: Herman Selderhuis (Apeldoorn), together with Irene Dingel (Mainz), Elsie McKee (Princeton), Emidio Campi (Zürich), and Wim Janse (Leiden/Amsterdam).

Vol. 1: J. Mark Beach

Christ and the Covenant

Francis Turretin's Federal Theology as a Defense of the Doctrine of Grace

2007. 372 pp, hardback $ 88.70
ISBN 978-3-525-56911-5

The subject of this volume is Francis Turretin's federal theology as a defence of the doctrine of grace. Specifically, it deals with Turretin's exposition of the twofold covenant of God, that is the covenant of nature and the covenant of grace.

Vol. 2:

Cornelis P. Venema

Accepted and Renewed in Christ

The "Twofold Grace of God" and the Interpretation of Calvin's Theology

2007. 296 pp, hardback
$ 75.00
ISBN 978-3-525-56910-8

Venema focuses on the understanding of the gospel in the theology of the Protestant Reformer John Calvin. Specifically, it deals with what Calvin terms the »twofold grace of God«, the justification and sanctification of believers on the basis of the redemptive work of Christ.

Vol. 3:

J. Tobias Sarx

Franciscus Junius d.Ä. (1545-1602)

Ein reformierter Theologe im Spannungsfeld zwischen späthumanistischer Irenik und reformierter Konfessionalisierung

2007. 318 pp, hardback $ 75.00
ISBN 978-3-525-56912-2

Franciscus Junius was a Reformed theologian who combined the promotion of the Reformed Church with an effort to make peace between Lutherans, Calvinists and Roman-Catholics. Sarx investigates his case.
